University Values Requirement
Students meet the University Values requirement by taking courses in which one or more University Values areas are explicitly embedded. The University Values requirement can be met in GE, major, minor, or elective courses. Students satisfy this requirement by taking:

- 2 courses designated as Values Orientation (UVVO)
- 2 courses designated as Community and Diversity (UVCD)
- 2 courses designated as Lifelong Learning (UVLL)
- 1 course designated as Community Service (UVCS)

Interdisciplinary Requirement
Students must take at least one upper division interdisciplinary course (INTD)
GE Policies

1. One “course” is defined as having a minimum of two semester hours.
2. Students may take a maximum of one class in their major to fulfill their Breadth Requirement.
3. Students must complete a minimum of 5 upper division units in at least two different areas of the University Values requirement.
4. No course can be used to meet more than one Breadth Requirement.
5. All courses (general education, major, minor, or electives) can be used to fulfill multiple requirements in the University Values Requirement and/or Interdisciplinary Requirement.

Certification for GE Requirements

The following GE areas can be fulfilled through certification: Written Communication, Quantitative Reasoning, Foreign Language, Creative and Artistic Expression, Community Service, and Lifelong Fitness. Certifications do not carry course credit. However, if you are certified in Written Communication or Community Service, you have the option of paying the course challenge fee for course credit. Students who wish to meet a requirement through certification should contact the appropriate department for information.
