I. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A. Agreement and Fees

This License Agreement is entered into between the Trustees of the University of La Verne, hereinafter called “University,” and the above named person, hereinafter called “Licensee.”

B. Licensee must be at least 17 years of age by the respective move-in day to be able to reside in on-campus housing.

C. In consideration for the right to occupy an assigned bed space within the housing facility at University, Licensee agrees to purchase meal plan for the entire term of agreement. Licensee must indicate choice of meal plan based on options provided based on their occupancy location and Semester/Term enrollment as shown in the 2015-2016 Housing License Fee Schedule.

D. In consideration for the right to occupy an assigned bed space within the housing facility at University, Licensee agrees to guarantee full and prompt payment or have a payment plan in place with the Office of Student Accounts by the respective move-in day or an earlier date as indicated on the 2015-2016 Housing Application. Students without full payment or payment plans will not be allowed to move in and/or subject to losing their assigned bed space prior to move-in. Students on a payment plan agree to make payments as scheduled with the Office of Student Accounts. Students failing to follow the agreed payment plans will be asked to vacate. Payments will be based on meal plan and room selections related fees as indicated on the 2015-2016 License Fee Schedule.

E. Licensee understands that rates are based on a per person rate. All bedrooms are shared by two people unless otherwise designated as a single, triple or quadruple room type.

F. An initial payment is due with this electronically signed License Agreement. Initial payment for new students at the University is a $300 non-refundable application/activity fee. Initial payment for continuing students at the University is a $150 non-refundable Application/Activity Fee. The only time the initial non-refundable fee may be returned is if the University is not able to offer a bed space or opportunity to select a bed space by the respective move-in day of the term/semester being applied for. If a space or opportunity to select a space is given and it is declined or no response is received from perspective Licensee, the non-refundable fee is forfeited.

G. Licensee understands that Licensee Agreement is from the respective move-in day until the last day of the academic year. The last day of the 2015-16 academic year is tentatively set for May 29, 2016.

H. Space is not guaranteed until a written confirmation from University is sent to Licensee. Once confirmed, Licensee is responsible for license agreement unless cancelled or terminated as described in sections VII, VIII, IX.

I. Licensee and University agree to adhere to the terms and conditions set forth in this Housing License Agreement.

II. Occupancy

A. University hereby grants to Licensee permission to occupy a bed space within the housing facility for the “License Term” and corresponding to the specific fee as outlined in the 2015 – 2016 License Fee Schedule, unless terminated under the provisions of this license agreement in sections VII, VIII, IX.

B. University reserves the right to terminate the Licensee of any Licensee who does not check into housing within 3 calendar days of the beginning of the “License Term” and corresponding to the specific fee as outlined in the 2015-2016 License Fee Schedule. Charges will continue each day on a pro rata basis until Licensee’s space can be filled with a suitable replacement for up to 30 days since the start of term agreement.

C. The University shall assign Licensee to a specific bed space within the facilities or contracted facilities. The University reserves the right to change room assignments, assign a new Licensee, or reassign a current Licensee to an unoccupied bed space at any time, and/or consolidate vacancies in the interest of health, discipline, occupancy, operational needs or for general welfare of the Licensee.

D. Priority for housing will be given to University students. University reserves the right to house others on a space available basis and at the discretion of the University.

E. Licensee shall vacate the facility on the expiration of the license period or upon revocation of this license agreement, whichever occurs first.

5. Administrative necessity of University.

B. University shall provide Licensee no less than three (3) days notice in the event of an occurrence described in subsections IX.A1, IX.A2, IX.A3, or IX.A4 and no less than fourteen (14) days written notice in the event of an occurrence described in subsection IX.A5 except in cases of emergency.

C. Licensees who have agreement revocation may be held to be equivalent to 30 days of occupancy based on their assigned space plus a pro-rated amount based on their specified move-out day. Pro-rated amounts shall be equivalent to amounts outlined in section VIII.D.1 and VIII.D.2. Licensees who upon notice of revocation continue to engage in behaviors that constitute a breach of license agreement in sections IX.A.1 – IX.A.4 may be held for full term of the agreement.

X. Abandonment or Termination By Licensee

Except as permitted in section VII or VIII, termination of Agreement or abandonment of premises by Licensee shall not release Licensee from paying any obligation due the University for so long as University does not terminate Licensee’s right to an assigned bed space. In the event of termination or abandonment, Licensee shall have the right to be released from this agreement if a suitable replacement is found, pursuant to campus regulations and with consent of University, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld. University may donate, destroy, or discard and/or charge a storage fee for abandoned personal belongings 30 days after date of agreement cancellation.

XI. Destruction or Unavailability

In the event that bed space is destroyed or becomes unavailable as the result of conditions not reasonably foreseen at the time Agreement is made and no replacement space is made available, Licensee shall be entitled to a daily pro-rated refund of fees applicable to periods after Licensee was required to vacate. Such conditions include but are not limited to damage caused by floods, slides, fire, earthquake, other natural disasters and vandalism; civil disorder; compliance with state or federal law; unanticipated interruption of basic services; a drop in the rate of cancellations not reasonably foreseen by University, if such drop results in an overbooking of available housing facilities.

XII. Refunds

Refunds related to room and board will be made upon approval of the University and in line with this license agreement. Refunds will be made by appropriate amounts being applied to student University Account. Refund, will be applied to any student account balance. The remainder will then result in a credit and/or refund in accordance to Student Account and University protocol.

Failure of Licensee to satisfy the financial obligations of this Agreement may result in the following:

A. Imposition of a late fee, in accordance with the fee University process
B. Revocation of the License Agreement
C. Eviction
D. Withholding of University services. This includes but is not limited to: holds, withholding official transcripts, Denial of registration
E. Offset of paychecks, loans, grants or scholarships payable through University.
F. Notification of default to credit bureau organizations and other reasonable agencies.
G. Legal action to collect unpaid obligations, including use of a collection agency to retrieve payment. This may result in Licensee being charged for the costs associated with the collection of an outstanding account, including but not limited to, collection and legal costs.
H. By signing the License Agreement, Licensee consents to the release of information from student records to non-University third parties such as credit bureaus, credit gathering organizations, skip tracers, billing agencies, collection agencies, legal counsel, parents, and employees which may, in the judgment of University, be necessary or helpful in the collection of delinquent obligation arising out of the agreement.

XIV. Right of Entry

University shall have the right to enter the premises occupied by Licensee for the purposes of emergency, health, safety, maintenance of facilities, management of applicable rules and regulations, or for any other lawful purpose. University shall exercise these rights reasonably (During break periods, cleaning, repairs and/or construction projections may be necessary). Projects requiring entry into Licensee’s assigned room will result in University notifying Licensee in advance, whenever possible. Licensee shall be responsible for safeguarding his/her belongings.

XV. Insurance

The University is not responsible for personal or property damage of Licensee as a result (including but not limited to) theft; damage caused by floods, slides, fire, earthquake, other natural disasters and vandalism; or civil disorder. The University highly recommends that Licensee obtain insurance, such as a renter’s policy.

XVI. Non-Waiver

The waiver of any breach of a term or condition of this license agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach
