University Of La Verne

Film Festival On Immigration

Thursday Evenings @ 7:30pm

La Fetra Auditorium

A discussion will follow each showing. There will be a blog on Blackboard for faculty, students, and staff. The videos will be available in the library following each showing.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>March 4</th>
<th>March 11</th>
<th>March 25</th>
<th>April 1</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

March 4

A modern-day Irish family crosses the Canadian border, headed for New York. They settle there in search of their American dream.

March 11

The film follows three Sudanese boys, refugees from Sudan’s bloody civil war, as they try to adjust to life in the U.S.

March 25

The film follows three Cambodian-American men, brought to the U.S. as children by their refugee families. As teens they made bad choices, and as a consequence these adults are sentenced to go back to Cambodia.

April 1

Honduran teenager Sayra reunites with her father, an opportunity for her to potentially realize her dream of a life in the U.S. Moving to Mexico is the first step in a fateful journey of unexpected events.

Sponsored by the Coalition for Diversity, Office of Multicultural Services & the International Studies Institute

For more information contact:
Justin Saldana  jsaldana@laverne.edu  xt. 4656
Kenneth Marcus  kmarcus@laverne.edu  xt. 4283