A lecture on the music and culture of Sephardic Jews, a continuous Jewish community that began in the Iberian Peninsula during the “Golden Age” of interfaith coexistence and has continued to thrive after the Jewish expulsion from Spain.

Presenter
Vanessa Paloma
Internationally renowned performer, scholar and lecturer

Thursday, March 29, 2012
11:00 a.m.
University of La Verne
Sara & Michael Abraham Campus Center
Ludwick Center A

To RSVP please contact Kristin Howland at
(909) 593-3511 ext. 4221 or email:
khowland@laverne.edu