Request for Course Overload

For undergraduate students enrolled in a 10-week term, eight semester hours constitute full-time status; four semester hours constitute half-time status. For undergraduate students enrolled in a five week term, four semester hours constitute full-time status.

For graduate students enrolled in a 10-week term, six semester hours constitute full-time status; three semester hours constitute half-time status. For graduate students enrolled in a five week term, three semester hours constitute full-time status.

La Verne Online students requesting to enroll in more than the number of semester hours specified for full-time enrollment must have approval by the Assistant Dean, Academic and Student Services at least two weeks prior to the start of the registration period. Approvals are based on extenuating circumstances.

CRITERIA
For a course overload to be approved a student must meet the following requirements:

1. Officially admitted into the degree program.
2. Successfully completed one (1) term with the University of La Verne.
3. Have either [a] or [b] apply:
   a) It is the final term before student will graduate -or-
   b) Other extenuating circumstances are in effect
4. The type or nature of the courses for which the student is requesting permission to enroll, and the student's grade point average, are also considered during the approval process.

PROCEDURE

1. Complete the Course Overload Request form (front side) and return it to your Academic Advisor.
2. Requests should be submitted at least two (2) weeks prior to the start of the registration period of the term for which the course overload is requested.
3. The "Request for Course Overload" form will be returned to the student and will indicate whether or not the course overload is approved.
